

515.62(g) Resource Concern

The land offered for EQIP must have a resource concern or resource concerns (either on site or off site) that the practices on the application will address. The resource concern(s) must exist at the time of application.